Fish & Co. Presents Project: Anchorband

Tunes of Singapore Mash-Up

Singapore, August 2014 – It's the time of the year where red and white is the colour of choice and flags fly high as we celebrate the nation's birthday. For the first time, Singapore is missing a song to commemorate National Day, but who's to say we can't mark this special occasion with songs from yesteryears?

In light of this Singapore's 49th Birthday, home grown casual dining restaurant Fish & Co. will be celebrating in a musical spectacular held at its very own Glasshouse outlet. This musical initiative will take centrestage on Thursday, 7 August 2014, where three bands will belt it out on Fish & Co.'s stage to decide who will make the final cut as Fish & Co.'s very first anchorband.

The top three bands will be decided via online voting through a Facebook application on Fish & Co.'s Official Singapore Facebook Page (<https://www.facebook.com/fishandco.sg>), which closes on Monday, 4 August 2014. The last band standing stands to walk away with cash prizes and the grand prize of a six month residency to play at Fish & Co.'s most flagship outlet, The Glasshouse.

Whether you're a fan of the old favorites like Home by Kit Chan or more recent tunes like What Do You See by Electrico, Fish & Co.'s Project: Anchorband is a great opportunity to come together to celebrate our nation, our music and our talents.

Guest Judge: Joel Tan

The competition will be judged by, Singaporean Singer-Songwriter Joel Tan.

This up-and-coming local star goes by the moniker Gentle Bones and has recently released two singles, Until We Die and Elusive which claimed first and third spot respectively on iTunes Singapore chart.

Until We Die has also broken the 120,000 views mark on Youtube, making it one of the most view music videos in Singapore.
